Ba Na Hills Golf Club, a initial golf march designed by former universe No. 1 Luke Donald, will open on Mar 25.

The march will underline 18 tour-caliber holes during a feet of a towering soaring operation reduction than half an hour's expostulate from Da Nang, Vietnam's fourth largest city and a gateway to 3 other designer courses built within a past 7 years in a executive region.

"This is an critical further to one of a best new golf destinations in Asia," pronounced Mr. Donald, who has competed all over the world given branch pro in 2001 and hold tip mark in a rankings between May 2011 and Mar 2012.

"The vast rolling hills, stunning mountain backdrop, and adjacent stream during Ba Na Hills element the existing courses in a area."

Ba Na Hills GC lies during a feet of a soaring soaring operation only outward of Danang, Vietnam

The 7,858-yard march – a longest in Vietnam – also comprises a non-stop period of undulating and infrequently tiny greens and is capable of contrast even a world's best golfers.

Unlike Colin Montgomerie's Montgomerie Links (2009), Greg Norman's Danang Golf Club (2010) and Nick Faldo's Laguna Lang Co (2013), Ba Na Hills Golf Course – that Luke Donald designed in and with IMG – is divided from a seashore and during elevation, creation for a cooler setting typically absent of wind.

"I consider people are going to unequivocally be taken by a different brew of natural topography and foliage out here as well," pronounced Mr. Jack Hedges, General Manager of a course.

"From rose lily trees to wispy redtop grass, there's an exquisite beauty to a landscape, especially with a Truong Son Mountains always looming."

The many monumental perspective comes during a Par 3 12th hole, where an elevated tee box reveals a unenlightened timberland stretching as distant as a eye can see over a bunker-guarded target.

Ba Na Hills Golf Club is managed by IMG and owned by a Sun Group, one of a heading investors in Vietnam.

Other liberality projects in its portfolio embody a InterContinental Danang Sun Peninsula Resort, Novotel Danang Premier Han River, and Ba Na Hills Mountain Resort, the site of a longest, single-wire automobile complement in a world.
